

Report – Economics A Level workshop

On 16th July 2021, DPSI batch of 2021 alumnus and A level Economics topper Medhansh Kumar addressed grade 12 students on how to score well in the CAIE A Level Economics Examination 2022. In an extremely insightful and interactive session, Medhansh advised students on every possible facet of preparation for the exam; from which books and resources to refer, to structuring and content of answers. Medhansh offered straightforward and helpful tips from personal experience, such as a list of the most scoring topics as well as how to perfect A level Economics responses by adding real world examples. The session ended with an engaging round of questions from the eager students, such as which topics to focus on and how to practice, to which Medhansh gave frank and elaborate answers.
